DETAILED ACTION

The election of Group I drawn to a method of controlling organisms is hereby acknowledged. However, a new restriction has been issued since a proper restriction was not made in the previous office action. Further, the restriction below address confusion brought forth in the previous restriction.

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-3 are drawn to a method for controlling organisms, classified in class 435, subclass 234+.
- II. Claims 7-10, drawn to a method for selective absorption of proteins, classified in class 530, subclass 415.
- III. Claims 4-6, 9-21 are drawn to a cement material, classified in class 523, subclass 105+.

Note that claim 19 has been placed in Group III since it is drawn to a product. There is no longer an issue with regard to claim 19 being in two different groups.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

1. Inventions of Group I and Group III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product of Group II can be used for fillings as bone. This does not involve a method of controlling microorganisms.

The methods of Group I and II are distinct in that they do not involve similar method steps. For example, the method of Group II involves the use of proteins which are adsorbed on the ceramic surface. However, the method of Group I does not involve the use of proteins, since the method of Group I is used for organisms, and the method of Group I does not require the adsorption on the ceramic surface. Thus the methods are distinct.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

The ceramic materials disclosed in claim 5, 9, 13 and 16. All of the groups cited have a markush group drawn to a ceramic material. Thus for any elected Group, Applicants are also requested to elect a single disclosed ceramic material.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1-21 are generic.

A telephone call was made to Gunther Evanina on 4-19-02 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

1. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Anish Gupta whose telephone number is (703) 308-4001. If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Christopher Low, can normally be reached on (703)308-2923. The fax phone number of this group is (703) 308-4242.

Any inquiry of a general nature or relating to the status of this application should be directed to the Group receptionist whose telephone number is (703) 308-0196.
